

HISTORY COMES ALIVE TO CELEBRATE THE HISTORIC EPPINGTON PLANTATION

Saturday, Oct. 5
11 a.m.-4 p.m.
14201 Eppes Falls Road
Chesterfield, VA 23838

Join us for Eppington Heritage Day. Visit with historical figure Sally Hemmings as she takes you back through history to life in the 18th century. Tour the historic house and cemetery, take a carriage ride, listen to period musical performances and enjoy food and craft beer vendors. Children can play period games and see a colonial encampment complete with artillery demonstrations.

Free admission.
For more information,
call 751-4946 or visit eppington.org.

Want to learn more? Take a peek inside the history of Eppington ...

Then and Now:
How Faith Got Us Through

Monday, Sept. 16, 6:30-7:30 p.m.
Central Library

Examine the importance of faith in the African American community. Presented by Theresa Gee, living history performer.

Registration begins Monday, Sept. 2.

Puzzling Parallels:
Connections from Slavery to Present Day

Saturday, Sept. 21, 11 a.m.-Noon
Clover Hill Library

Learn about the potential parallels between America's history of slavery and the lives of African Americans today.

Presented by Theresa Gee, living history performer.

Registration begins Saturday, Sept. 7.

Chesterfield Plantations: Eppington and Matoaca

Tuesday, Sept. 24, 6:30-7:30 p.m.
Ettrick-Matoaca Library

Discover the historical framework in which the enslaved peoples of Eppington Plantation lived, worked and developed community.

Dr. Lucious Edwards, retired Virginia State University archivist, will provide a more realistic view of the realities of enslavement.

Registration begins Tuesday, Sept. 3.

To register, go to
library.chesterfield.gov
and click on "Events."